

BIO

The multi-genre band Xondra, formed in the heart of the SUNY Purchase Music Conservatory, brings feminist themes to the front with a tight indie delivery sure to have you on your feet.

Xondra plays a mixed palate of R&B, Alternative, Punk, Indie, and Pop Rock. The Band has been playing shows in the NYC and tri-state area DIY scene since 2018.

The band released its first album, "Your Evil Ex", in October of 2019. They were set to go on their first tour Northeastern tour in April of 2020 but had to cancel due to Covid.

During the quarantine, the band has taken the time to write and record remotely from different locations, sharing voice memos and recording back and forth online. They are looking forward to releasing their second album Summer 2021. In the meantime, They will be releasing four singles, starting with a double single on January 29th, 2021. "Crush" and "Ben & Jerry's" is available on all major platforms including Spotify, Apple Music, Youtube, Tidal, Deezer, Amazon music, etc.
